

Developing Women Leaders in 2025

for Japanese, Japanese-American, and all API women

invest in leadership skills development for minority women | consider cultural influences, how identity forms habits
study best practices and strategies | learn from global and national leaders | build your support network

Women's Leadership Luncheon: Leading With Purpose

hosted by JASO Women's Leadership Council

Wednesday December 3rd, 11:00am – 1:00pm

NW Natural, 250 SW Taylor St, Portland, OR 97204

Miho Walsh
Global Philanthropy Specialist
UNICEF Japan

Jill Nishi
Chief Executive Officer
Philanthropy Northwest

PARTNER WITH US AND DEVELOP WOMEN LEADERS

- $2,500 Presenting sponsor listing with brief podium welcome, 1 table of 8; highest-level of support highlighted with logo use on all materials, online, and at event; 2 invites to separate private function.
- $1,250 Table for 8; support highlighted though logo use on all materials, online, and at event; 1 invite to separate private function.
- $650 Table for 8 at lunch; support highlighted though name use on all materials, online, and at event.
- $400 Half-Table for 4 at lunch. Name recognition on event materials and at event.
- Supporter - donation of goods and/or services: Name recognition on materials and at event.

Join us for insightful discussion, delicious bento lunch, and great networking.

To commit to partnership, call Kaoru Miyanaga at 503-552-8811 or email kmiyanaga@jaso.org;
or Graham Morris at 503-552-8813 or email gmorris@jaso.org

The Japan-America Society of Oregon (JASO) is a volunteer-driven 501 c3 non-profit organization with the mission to support business and develop community by strengthening the US-Japan relationship.